

All About Buffy Sainte-Marie

Buffy Sainte-Marie is a Cree musician, artist, activist, teacher, and children's book author. She shares her stories through the words she writes and the music she plays. Buffy used to hang out with Big Bird on Sesame Street! On Sesame Street, she taught people how to count in Cree. She also taught people about Indigenous instruments like the mouth bow. Buffy loves animals and even wrote a book about pet adoption. Buffy believes kids (like you) have so much talent to share with the world!

REFLECT

How will you share your story with the world?

Do you like to play music, create art, or dance? How do you feel when you do these things?
